JAPANESE VICTORY ALMOST CERTAIN

The Russians Are Being Fiercely Pursued.

THE JAPS SEIZE GREAT PASS

Kuropatkin is Making a Stubborn Resistance—Mikado's Troops Realize That They Must Make the Battle Decisive—Great Battle Raging.

St. Petersburg, March 8.—The latest reports from Manchuria state that the battle is becoming more stubborn. The Russians have withdrawn the right wing of the army toward the north, so it faces the Japanese flanking columns. The two antagonists still maintain their positions.

Japs Capture Important Pass.

Tokio, March 8.—A dispatch says the Japanese captured Machuntan at 8 o'clock this morning. Machuntan is a great pass thirty-five miles east of Mukden and fifteen miles southeast of Fushun. Its capture gives the Japanese control of the head of the valley running to Fushun. The Japanese are pursuing the Russians northward. The retreat may yet become a rout.

QUACKS OF OTHER DAYS.

Queen Anne Was the Victim of a Tailor and a Cobbler.

Quacks and impostors have their victims in these days just as they did in our forefather's times. Even kings and queens were just as easily victimized as the most ignorant of their subjects. Queen Anne was especially gullible, and was always ready to fall down on her knees to any impostor who promised to cure her weak eyes. William Reade, tailor, she dubbed a knight, and he used to strut about with his gold-headed cane and lace ruffles, or drive in his gorgeous coach drawn by four horses, to the wide-eyed wonder of the crowds who did not know what a humbug the man was.

His vanity even led him to engage a poet to sing his praises in stately verse, although the hero of the hexameters had scarcely enough learning to read them.

Roger Grant, Anne's other favorite physician, had been a cobbler and anapapist, but his foolish head was so turned by royal favor that he must needs have his face engraved on copper for condescending presentation to his friends.

Dr. Thomas Saffold was the king of quacks in Charles II.'s time, and, possibly on the strength of having been bred a weaver, he added the weaving of rhymes to his healing artifices and, won great fame and wealth from the union.

Saffold employed hundreds of men to distribute circulars and pamphlets describing his wonderful gifts, and his house was besieged daily by crowds clamoring for his attention and willing, many of them, to pay the most extortionate fees.

A brace of impostors of the same period were Mr. and Mrs. Louthborough, who professed to cure any disease by a look or a touch.

Allhaud was another highly successful humbug, whose pills devastated Europe and made him a threefold baron.

Dr. Katterfelto was a name to conjure with in the latter years of the eighteenth century. He used to travel all over England in an enormous caravan, which he shared with a small army of black cats, and he was regarded everywhere as a wizard with superhuman powers until the mayor of Shrewsbury sent him to prison as a rogue and a vagabond.

There was one quack of whom Steele tells us who claimed that he could infallibly cure cataracts "because he had lost an eye in the emperor's service," and as evidence of his powers he produced a muster roll in which his name or his alleged name appeared.

A reverend city rector, Dr. John Hancock, did not scruple to add to his stipend by curing fevers by the simple expedient of administering "common water," and Hubert Glass professed to cure persons who had been born stone blind and forged testimonials and signatures in proof of his claims in the most unblushing manner.—Stray Stories.

DON'T RECOGNIZE DEFEAT.

Prove Your Manhood by Battling on Bravely After Reverses.

After 12,000 of Napoleon's soldiers had been overwhelmed by the advance of 75,000 Austrian troops he addressed them thus: "I am displeased with you. You have evinced neither discipline nor valor. You have allowed yourselves to be driven from positions where a handful of resolute men might have arrested an army. You are no longer French soldiers. Chief of staff, cause it to be written on their standards, 'They are no longer of the army of Italy.'"

In tears the battered veterans replied: "We have been misrepresented. The soldiers of the enemy were three to one. Try us once more. Place us in the post of danger and see if we do not belong to the army of Italy." In the next battle they were placed in the van, and they made good their pledge by rolling back the great Austrian army.

He is a pretty poor sort of man who loses courage and fears to face the world just because he has made a mistake or a slip somewhere, because his business has failed, because his property has been swept away by some general disaster or because of other trouble impossible for him to avert.

This is the test of your manhood. How much is there left in you after you have lost everything outside of yourself? If you lie down now, throw up your hands and acknowledge yourself worsted there is not much in you. But if with heart undaunted and face turned forward you refuse to give up or to lose faith in yourself, if you scorn to beat a retreat, you will show that the man left in you is bigger than your loss, greater than your cross and larger than any defeat.

"I know no such unquestionable badge and ensign of a sovereign mind," said Emerson, "as that tenacity of purpose which, through all changes of companions or parties or fortunes, changes never, bates no jot of heart or hope, but wears out opposition and arrives at its port."

It is men like Ulysses S. Grant, who, whether in the conflict of opposing armies on the battlefield or in the wear and tear of civic strife, fighting against reverses, battling for a competence for his loved ones, even while the hand of death lay chill upon him, "bates no jot of heart or hope," that wring victory from the most forbidding circumstances. It is men like Napoleon, who refuse to recognize defeat, who declare that "impossible" is not in their vocabularies, that accomplish things.—Success.

Crabs Hard and Soft.

The process of crabs shedding during the summer season is as follows: The crabs become fat; then they assume a bluish look on the back and yellow on underside. When in this condition if an outer shell be broken there will be found a skin similar to the inner skin of an egg covering the crab. In this stage the crab is known as a peeler. The next stage is when the outer shell begins to open, and the crab is then known as a buster. When the outer shell is stuffed, the crab is then a soft crab. If she has escaped from the cannibalistic male crabs, who pursue her during this period, she lies hidden in the grass in shoal water until the next tide, which hardens her shell considerably, and the crab is called a buckrum. Buckrums are the tough crabs sold as soft crabs, and when cooked the shell turns red, like that of a lobster, and is not desirable on account of its brittleness. In another tide the crabs become truly hard and go where they please without fear of being devoured by the male members.

One of Poe's Experiences.

Poe, one night during those last weeks he spent in Richmond, related this personal experience, adding that he would carry it with him to the grave.

"I was living in Philadelphia during the epidemic of the cholera there. All day I would pace the streets, seeing the dying and dead, until my heart was faint and sick within me. Late one evening, on coming home after one of these aimless wanderings, broken down and with a thousand pictures of suffering and death dancing hideously before my eyes, I lay upon the bed. In a moment I was asleep and dreamed that a black bird like a raven came into the room and perched over the door. I asked what it was. The bird replied:

"I am the spirit of the cholera, and you are the cause of me."

"I woke with a start, but the apparition was so real that it made an impression on me I shall never forget."—Lamp.

NEW YORK SUBWAY TIE UP CONTINUES

No Violence Yet, But Trouble May Come.

THE STRICKERS ARE CONFIDENT

Strikers and Company Officials Refuse the Proposition to Arbitrate. Mayor McClellan and Civic Federation Trying to Adjust the Trouble.

New York, March 8.—The strike of the 5,000 employees of the elevated and subway continues, and beyond some improvement in the movement of trains the conditions remain the same.

The offers of arbitration by Mayor McClellan and the National Civic Federation were refused by both sides, each being eager to fight to the bitter end.

There was no violence this morning, but trouble is feared later. The company officials declare the strike is broken, and that by Saturday trains will be running on schedule.

ALPINE GUIDES.

The Trouble They Sometimes Have With Reckless Climbers.

The Alpine guide frequently risks his health, strength, even his life, for persons who may have been themselves the cause of the peril encountered. The qualities of a first class guide, says the author of "Adventures on the Roof of the World," include not only skill in climbing, but the ability to form sound conclusions in moments of danger. A certain climber tells an anecdote which bears on the importance of the guide's powers of judgment.

A member of the Alpine club was ascending a peak in company with an Oberland guide. Part of their course lay over a snow field which sank gradually on one side, sharply ended by a precipice on the other. The two were walking along not far from the edge of this precipice when the Englishman, thinking that an easier path might be made by going still nearer the edge, diverged a little from his companion's track. To his surprise, the guide immediately caught hold of him and pulled him back with more vigor than ceremony, well nigh throwing him down in the operation. Wrathful and not disinclined to return the compliment, the Englishman remonstrated. The guide's only answer was to point to a small crack, apparently like scores of other cracks in the neve, which ran for some distance parallel to the edge of the precipice.

The traveler was not satisfied, but he was too wise a man to argue while a desired summit was still some distance above him. On the descent when the scene of the morning's incident was reached the guide pointed to the crack, which had grown perceptibly wider.

"This marks," he said, "the place where the true snow field ends. I feel certain that the ice from here to the edge is nothing, but an unsupported cornice hanging over the tremendous precipice below. It might possibly have borne your weight, though I don't think it would." Thereupon he struck the neve on the farther side of the ice sharply with his ax. A huge mass immediately broke away and went roaring down the cliff.

The traveler was full of amazement and admiration and thought how there, on an easy mountain and in smiling weather, he had been very near to making himself into an avalanche.

The Wedding Ring.

In France there is a peculiar significance in the ways in which the ring is held at the precise moment of the utterance of the fatal words of the marriage vow. If the bridegroom slips the ring at once over the second joint it is a sign that he gives of the sovereignty of his own house, but if as he repeats the words he merely holds it over the end of the finger, but does not let it slip down till afterward, it declares that he intends to remain master and protector.

Around the absence or presence of the wedding ring is much more noticed than in England. In Norway it is considered dishonorable for a man not to bear the sign that he is married. In modern Greece the husband wears a gold ringlet, the wife a silver, a reminiscence of the ancient sun and moon worship, which still prevails in India.—London Madame.

NATIONAL ELECTION DAY.

Why It's the Tuesday After the First Monday in November.

Why should the law prescribe "the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November" instead of saying "the first Tuesday?" Like many other small things this provision introduces an interesting picture of the past.

Although the constitution requires the electors in all the states to meet and choose a president on the same day, it was not until 1845 that a law was passed by congress providing that the electors should be chosen on the same day throughout the United States. When William Henry Harrison was the Whig candidate, in 1840, New York began to vote on the first Monday in November, and the polls were kept open until Wednesday night. Election day in Massachusetts was the second Monday, but before that day, in this instance, enough states had voted to decide the contest. The National Intelligencer of that year records that several thousand aged and infirm Whigs in Massachusetts did not bother to go to the polls.

Delaware voted a day later than Massachusetts, Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania were among the early voting states. Alabama was one of the last. This diversity, combined with slow methods of transmitting news, left the election results in doubt for many days.

The system was not satisfactory. The states that voted early had an undue influence on the result. Especially was this true as communication became more rapid, and by 1840 an enthusiastic editor told how the news from Pittsburg had been brought to New York in thirty-five hours. "This," he added significantly, "is a sign of the times."

Congress accordingly decided to establish a uniform day. The original bill named the first Tuesday in November, but it was found necessary to harmonize this with the requirement that not more than thirty days should elapse before the meeting of the electoral colleges in the different states, which had been set for the first Wednesday in December. When Tuesday is the first day of November, December will have no Wednesday till the seventh. The interval is thirty-seven days. Under the law as it was passed in 1845 not more than twenty-nine days can elapse between election day and the first Wednesday in December. Under the law of 1887 the electors do not meet to give their votes until the second Monday in January.—Youth's Companion.

A TEST OF NERVE.

One of the Ways in Which Indians Duel to the Death.

Among the Indian tribes the method of fighting duels differs. There are some tribes where a challenge to a duel means inevitably that both men must die. When an Indian feels aggrieved he demands a combat. The day for the same is fixed far in advance and is made the occasion of a little celebration. The entire tribe assembles. The braves sit in a circle, behind them their squaws and the young bucks.

The offended man is armed with a rifle or a shotgun. The challenged principal is unarmed. At a word both men arise and face each other, the unarmed man waving his breast to the bullet of his adversary. With eyes riveted on the little round hole at the end of the barrel pointed at him, the doomed man must face the protracted ordeal of expecting death at any instant without the least sign of weakening. The executioner may hold his gun as long as he pleases in order to try to break down his enemy. He may raise it and lower it or hold it steadily on the man under the frightful strain, but not even with an eyelid must the unfortunate betray his anxiety. At last the gun cracks, and the bullet speeds its way and the victim lies dying. The slayer hands the weapon to relative or a friend of the deceased and is put through the same ordeal.

Artificial Beauty in Rome.

Personal artifice is at least as old as the Roman empire, for, speaking of the artificial beauty of a coquette, Martial says: "Golly, you are but a composition of falsehood. While you were living at Rome your hair was growing on the banks of the Rhine. At night when you lay aside your silken robes you lay aside your teeth also. Two-thirds of your person are locked up in boxes for the night. The eyebrows with which you make such insinuating motions are the work of your slaves. Thus no man can say, 'I love you,' for you are not what he loves, and no one loves what you are."

FRIGHTFUL HORROR IN A COAL MINE

Four Killed and Ten Badly Injured.

CAR CONTAINING MEN CRUSHED

The Accident Was Caused by the Breaking of a Cable—The Car Shot Down the Side of the Mountain and Was Wrecked.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 8.—Four persons were killed and ten hurt, and four are perhaps fatally injured by the breaking of the cable at the Shrewsbury mine, near Charleston, this morning. The car in which the miners were returning from work shot down the side of the mountain, and was crushed against the foot of the mountain. The dead are Andrew Hunt, William McCurley, John McCurley and Edward McClothlin.

"DOUSING" RODS.

Art of Divination in the Bowels of the Earth Explained.

There is undoubtedly a practical art of discovering springs. Indians or frontiersmen can find water in the desert when a "tenderfoot" cannot. Mexicans and experienced prospectors can similarly find ore. These arts consist mainly in the recognition of superficial signs which escape the ordinary observer.

It is not necessary that the operator should consciously note these signs separately and reason upon them. No doubt he frequently does so, though he may not give away the secret of his method to others. But in many instances he recognizes by association and memory the presence of a group of indications, great or small, which he has repeatedly found to attend springs or ore deposits. This skill, due to habit, is often almost inferring for a given limited district, but under new conditions it breaks down. Old miners from California or Australia have often made in other regions the most foolish and hopeless attempts to find gold because they thought this or that place "looked just like" some other place in which they had mined successfully.

Apart from the magnetic minerals there is no proof that ore deposits exhibit their presence and nature by any attraction or other active force. With regard to water, however, there may be an action affecting the temperature and moisture of the overlying surface. Even here, however, it seems more likely that such effects are manifested visibly to a close observer rather than by direct affection of his nervous or muscular system. The favorite fields for water diviners are regions in which water is abundant, but not gathered upon given horizons of impermeable strata underlying porous rocks.—Cassier's Magazine.

Americans Assurance.

Americans are not the most impudent persons on the face of the earth. Nevertheless on occasion they can give points to those of some other nations. A traveler in Korea was discovered taking snapshots of Russian soldiers and promptly arrested.

"Have you been photographing my soldiers?" inquired the officer.

"Yes, and I should like to take yours. Permit me?"

Snap, and the thing was done. The Russian laughed, and the two men fell into conversation, whereupon the American said that he had recently been in Fort Arthur.

"Fort Arthur?" exclaimed the Russian. "Impossible!"

"Oh, no; not impossible. Your compatriots escorted me in." And, pulling some photographs from his pocket, he added, "I took these snapshots of your torpedo destroyers as they scooped down upon the little boat I was in."

The Russian looked from the man to the pictures with undisguised amazement. "Those are certainly our boats," he admitted.

"Perhaps you know their names and will oblige me by writing them on the backs of the pictures."

Like the queen of Sheba before Solo mon, there was no longer any spirit in the Russian. Meekly he took the proffered American pencil and upon the American's prints wrote the names of the Russian torpedo destroyers.

NEW BRICK STORES TO BE ERECTED

L. L. Hill Will Erect Handsome Building on East Liberty.

A PRESSED BRICK FRONT

Building Will be of Brick With Handsome Front—Will be One Story, and Will Contain Four Roomy, Well Ventilated and Well Lighted Stores.

Gainesville is soon to have another elegant brick block, which is to be erected on East Liberty, between East Main and South University streets. The builder will be L. L. Hill, who will let the contract to C. E. Whiting, and as soon as material can be placed upon the ground work will begin.

While this building will be for the present only one story, it will be modern in every respect. The block will contain four stores 20x40 feet in dimensions each. The material to be used will be of best quality brick, the front being pressed brick. It will be so constructed that Mr. Hill may at any time add another story.

Gainesville in all her history has never experienced such a building boom as for the past two years, and it is doubtful whether any city of the same population in the South can equal it. During a period of two years there has been approximately 140 residences, ranging in price from $500 to $7,000, with an average of $3,000 erected, nineteen substantial stores, which this proposed addition will increase to twenty-three, to say nothing of the numerous factories, mills, and public buildings, and still the rush goes on. They are not cheap buildings, but as a rule are of the most modern and handsome designs. Carpenters, bricklayers and other mechanics experience no difficulty in securing employment in Gainesville.

THE CHAUTAUQUA.

Program of Rare Literary Merit Presented Yesterday.

The warm weather had but a slight effect on the attendance at the Tabernacle on Wednesday afternoon, and there was a very good sized audience on hand at 2:30 o'clock to listen to the humorous and pathetic poems recited by William A. Bone, the popular writer. His selections were good, and rendered in his careful manner. He has won the esteem of all by his modest manner and gentlemanly bearing, his original poems being possessed of literary merit. He was assisted by Miss Rhea Hall Behrmer, contralto, who favored the audience with two solos.

TEACHERS ARE PAID.

Warrants Issued for Service for Extra Term Two Years Ago.

Fourteen teachers who gave a month's extra service at the conclusion of the regular authorized county term of the Gainesville Graded and High School in 1903, and who have been out the amounts of their respective salaries ever since, have been made happy, since they have now been compensated for their labor. The amount aggregated is a little more than $600, and the warrants have been issued by Superintendent Kelley.

This matter may be explained by the statement that the school in question is under the control of a board of trustees, being in a sub-school district. The trustees ordered the extra term of one month which was not provided by the county, with the natural consequence that the bills were turned down for this time, and there was no money left with which to pay. Since the board was successful in its case against the guaranty company a few weeks ago, securing a judgment for more than $5,000, this swelled the treasury of the sub-district, and it was in this manner that the teachers were enabled to secure their money.

COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL NEXT WEEK

Case of Fletcher Watson Set for Monday Morning.

A NEW JURY WAS SELECTED

And a Special Verire Summoned in the Fletcher Watson Case—One Prisoner Plead Guilty to Selling Liquor.
Another Manslaughter.

The third day of the third week of the circuit court convened at 9 o'clock
Wednesday morning, His Honor Judge
Wills presiding.

The first case to come before the court was that of the State vs. Isham Anderson, charged with murder. B.
T. Ellis was sworn in as assistant prosecuting attorney on this case. The prisoner being in court was arraigned and pleaded guilty of manslaughter, whereupon the court sentenced him to serve five years at hard labor in the State prison.

The next case called was that of State vs. Fletcher Watson, indicted for murder. The defendant being in court in person, as well as by his attorneys, it was agreed to continue the case, and the same was set for Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

In the case of the State vs. Henry McMillan, selling liquors in a dry county, the defendant, who had heretofore been arraigned and pleaded not guilty, withdrew said plea and by his attorney pleaded guilty. Sentence was suspended by the court, and the defendant, who had previously been under bond, was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

It being necessary to hold a term of the court for the fourth week, Judge Wills, in the presence of the clerk and sheriff, drew twelve names from the box to serve on the regular panel as jurors for this term as follows: J. B.
Mixon, A. J. Anderson, J. H. Avera,
J. D. Vaughn, A. V. Ellis, A. C. Blitch,
E. J. Baird, Lucius Hall, T. J. McRae,
F. M. Ramsey, J. W. Dell, A. L. Webb.

The clerk, by order of the court, issued a special venire of forty names to serve for the coming week on the case of Fletcher Watson, when court adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended
this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by all druggists.

Defiance.

A little boy in Deering, Me., was brought before his father recently and accused of killing a chicken. "Who told you about it?" asked the boy.
"The hen did," said the father. Nothing more was said that day, but the next morning the hen was found dead, and the boy, being accused of killing it, admitted it, saying in defense, "Yes, I did kill the hen, and I'll kill every hen that tells on me."

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propo-gates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. New-bro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 30c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

quite a scare on Thursday night. They had gone out for a row on the lake, ex-

Their friends got worried and began come home by team.

Serious Accident to a Lady—Young People Give Dance—Other Notes.

Archer, March 8.—A very serious accident happened to Mrs. J. P. Fry on ing to a wagon became frightened, running away and throwing Mrs. Fry out, the wagon falling on her. She is slowly recovering but it was a very close call.

Lakeland last week.

Burglars were in the house of E.
Thomas the other night, but were

THE WHITE CZAR.

Russia's Ruler Owes This Title to the Slip of a Pen.

The czar of Russia owes one of his titles to a slip of the pen. The Chinese character pronounced Hwang, meaning emperor, was originally compounded of two elements, meaning "oneself" and "ruler," by which it was intimated that an emperor or ruler of men should, before all things, be master of himself.

In after ages, however, by the omission of a single stroke, this character assumed its present corrupted form, in which the component elements signify "white" and "ruler," white having taken the place of the original "oneself."

Some years ago it was pointed out by a St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Times that this had been literally translated by the Mongols into tchagan khan, and then by the Russians into biely czar, or the "white czar," by which name the emperor of Russia is now known throughout the whole of Asia.—London Telegraph.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign,
I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the council." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Insulted His Legs.

Apropos of knee breeches a correspondent of the London Express quotes an anecdote from Captain Gronow's
"Recollections" which puts the whole case in a nutshell. The baillie de fer-rette was always dressed in knee breeches, with a cocked hat and a court sword, the slender proportions of which greatly resembled those of his legs. "Do tell me, my dear baillie," said Montrond one day, "have you got three legs or three swords?" Soon after which, we should imagine, the baillie went home.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality prevent and cure these awful diseases

there is just one reliable remedy, Dr.

"They have no equal for constipation and biliousness." 25c at druggists.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys,
but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases
have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter
and purify the blood—
that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys.
The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent bottles. You may have a sample bottle
by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Before the streets are paved we should have a system of sewers put in. The location of Gainesville is most excellent for a good sewerage system.

Revivalist George Stuart will undoubtedly put in most of the summer in Florida, as he has undertaken to improve the moral atmosphere of Tampa.

Greene and Gaynor, the two men who should be serving time, are still held at Montreal, the Dominion commissioner having declared that the statutes gave him no power to accept bail for them.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial at Portland, Oregon, opens on June 1st, and closes October 15th. The cost of this exposition is placed at $5,000,000, and the exhibits five times that sum. Twenty States and fifteen foreign nations will participate.

The President has appointed Charles W. Anderson, colored, internal revenue collector of New York. It would be safe to wager a ten-cent cigar to a frozen orange that there was, is now and ever will be, some kicking even in New York about the appointment.

The appointment of George B. Cortelyou as Postmaster-General and his resignation as chairman of the Republican National Committee, were almost simultaneous. But it is all right for him, although a poor rural mail carrier at $700 per year has to not mix in politics.

St. Augustine will have a new opera house. Gainesville should fall in line, and it is quite certain an up-to-date house could be made to pay here. It would not be a gold mine, but an opera house of moderate size and with a seating capacity for about a thousand, would supply a long felt want.

The Odd Fellows' Home and Sanitarium of this city is becoming more popular each year, and as a boarding place for winter visitors, as well as a home for the sick, is a most excellent place to stop. Every Odd Fellow in the United States and Canada should know what the brethren of Florida are trying to do for the good of the order, and, if they are true Odd Fellows, should not turn down the appeal for aid.

The city election will be held on Tuesday, the 11th day of April, 1905, and there is need of good men being elected. Gainesville is now making a steady advance forward and there will be an opportunity offered to do much for the city in the year to come, and anything that is worth doing at all is worth doing well. A concerted action for the best interests of our city is all that is needed, as nature has done as much for Gainesville as any city in Florida. It is up to the people to do the rest, if we shall prosper.

RAISING SHEEP.

The farmer who has given a casual thought to the keeping of a few sheep on his premises knows full well that they are of benefit in more ways than one, and as a meat product are equal, if not superior, to cattle or hogs, the meat produced being as healthy as any that can be eaten and far more cleanly than any other raised on the farm.

It requires about the same amount of feed to produce a pound of flesh on a steer as on a sheep. The investigators show that to be true as a rule. But sheep will thrive on weeds and grass that cattle will not touch, and when it is remembered that sheep produce a clip of wool every year in addition to mutton, the balance is in favor of the sheep.

It is often said that it does not pay to raise sheep on high-priced land. If that is true, then it does not pay to raise cattle or hogs on the same land. It costs no more, pound for pound, for one than the other.

Fat lambs always find ready sale at good prices, and choice lambs are generally scarce at high prices. If lambs are kept until they grow a fleece the price of the wool is generally the profit of the sheep over the fat cow or the fat steer. Of course sheep will not fatten on weeds or brush or thrive in cold, wet lots upon neglect. But they will show up in the sale pens favorably with steers or cows if they are given the same feed and the same care, or even less.

Sheep can be fattened in less time than cattle. It is generally found that the steer is not finished in one hundred days, but must be topped off with about two weeks' extra feeding. The sheep can be ready and prime for the market in one hundred days.

CROP REPORT.

From the State crop report received by the department of agriculture, March 1, it is learned that the damage to the orange trees by the freeze of January 24 to 28, 1905, throughout the State was 13 per cent, to grape fruit trees 15 per cent, and to other fruit trees 21 per cent. The proportion of oranges on the trees at the time was 23 per cent, and they were damaged, 64 per cent.

The damage to trees consists almost entirely in dropping of the leaves, and in the majority of cases, that is only partial, and in many others none were touched, however slight.

The vegetable crops, of course, suffered much heavier than the fruit, but even with these, the first estimates of damage was greatly exaggerated; the actual loss will not exceed 44 per cent.

The one luminous orb, the light of which constitutes day, may be hidden by clouds and cast a shadow around the happy home circle, causing days of gloom, but The Daily Sun, sent to your home six days a week, is never hidden by a cloud or hindered by storm—always speaking a good word for every worthy citizen and the city of Gainesville. With $12,000 Suns in a year, why should not our city be the brightest spot on earth.

$100 Reward, $100.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. TYPHOID BACILLI.

The value of copper sulphate destroying typhoid bacilli has recently been extensively exploited by the daily papers of Philadelphia, says American Medicine. The basis of their reports is certain statements made by Dr. Edward Martin, director of public health and charities, under whose direction laboratory experiments have for some time been in progress, and also additional assertions by Dr. Moore, of the agricultural department at Washington, whose announcement on this subject earlier in the year created much discussion.

That this successful method of destroying typhoid bacilli in the laboratory may be extended and made possible of application to large bodies of water is a consummation devoutly to be desired, but that is a question of the future. In the meantime, the discussion on this subject bids fair to shatter an idol cherished from time immemorial by both physicians and laymen. We refer to the danger of copper poisoning from the use of cooking utensils made of that metal. Eminent physicians and chemists now announce this fear to be unfounded. Director Martin asserts positively that no harm will come from drinking water which has stood in copper vessels for four hours at living room temperature or three or four times that long in refrigerators, though this will destroy all typhoid bacilli which may have been therein contained.

Illinois is a great State. It is greater in extent than any of the original States except Georgia. It is larger than Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Wisconsin or Iowa and embraces a larger territory than all the New England States combined, exclusive of Maine. It has several counties each of which contains nearly as many square miles as Rhode Island, while two of them, McLean and LaSalle, are larger than Delaware. RELIGIOUS CENSUS IS NOW COMPLETE

Important Meeting of Ministerial Association Tuesday.

MOST INTERESTING SESSION

The Religious Census Discloses a Few Startling Conditions Existing Which Were Not Known Before—North Gainesville to Have Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ministerial Association of Gainesville was held at the manse of the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon, a full membership being present with the exception of Rev. Francis H. Craighill of Holy Trinity Church and Robert McClellan of the First Baptist Church.

The report of Secretary F. Prescott Bullock on the religious census, which has been in the course of compilation by the ministers of the various churches for the past three months, was made and received, and the papers of the city requested to publish same for general information. Secretary Bullock was tendered a vote of thanks for the excellent and systematic manner in which the work had been conducted.

Upon motion of Rev. S. B. Rogers, it was decided to give the evening of the fifth Sunday in April for a union Sabbath-school service, and a committee of one from each church was appointed to select the place of meeting and arrange a program.

Rev. Thos. P. Hay of the First Presbyterian Church stated for the information of the association that Dr. Phillips of Richmond, Va., a noted divine in the methods of Sunday school work, will be here March 16 and 17.

It was decided to give North Gainesville a full week's service, beginning March 20, which will be conducted by all the ministers of this city, the ministers alternating each evening.

The Religious Census.

To the Ministerial Association, Gainesville, Fla.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to present the following report of the religious census of this city, as taken by you or your representatives. I regret to say that owing to the unavoidable difficulties arising from changes to the ministerial charges in some of the churches, and the indifferent manner in which some of the canvassers allowed their cards to be filled out, the census is not as full in some respects as we could have received it, but the work has been thorough enough to give us much valuable data and probably comes very near the true number of white children who are bona fide residents of the place.

Taken as a whole, I think that the information obtained will compare most favorably, for Gainesville in a religious point of view, with other places of its size in this or any other State. At the same time the figures will show that each and every minister in the city has ample material to work upon for the increase of his church and Sunday school.

In taking the census there were 429 households visited, containing from two to eight adults, and among these were found members of thirteen different religious sects, namely: Baptists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians, Methodists, Lutherans, Advents, Congregationalists, Christians, Unitarians, German Reformed and Christ Church followers. Among all those families, there was but one instance where in-

CHRONIC SORES

Wheeling, W. Va., May 28, 1903.
Some years ago while at work, I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were headed up the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely cure up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broke out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred. Having been so signally benefited by its use I can heartily recommend it as the one great blood purifier.
JOHN W. FUNDIS.
Care Schmulback Brewing Co.

Chronic sores start often from a pimple, scratch, bruise or boil, and while salves, washes and powders are beneficial, the unhealthy matter in the blood must be driven out or the sore will continue to eat and spread. S. S. S. reaches these old sores through the blood, removes all impurities and poisons, builds up the entire system and strengthens the circulation. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined. Contains no mineral whatever but is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you have an old sore write us and our physicians will advise without charge. Book on diseases of the Blood free.

The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

formation was refused as to church membership or religious preference, and but ninety-seven grown persons were found who were willing to admit and have it go on record that they had no religious belief or affiliation with any church.

The census shows that there are 743 white children permanent residents of the city, and of these 373 are reported as attending some Sunday school, while 370 are non-attendants. Of these last about one-fourth, or say 100, are too young to attend Sunday school, and the remaining 270 do not attend, it is to be supposed, because of the laxity and indifference of the parents as to the religious training of their children, for no valid excuse was given, except in one instance where the mother stated she could not send her children on account of being too poor to dress them properly.

This large number of children who are known to be not connected with any Sunday school is increased from the fact that many of those reported to their parents as going to Sunday school, are not seen in the schools except on special occasions, and often not at all.

Copies of all the census cards have been made, and each minister is in possession of all those belonging to his congregation and Sunday school, and the secretary has retained a complete set for future reference.

Trusting that the information obtained from the work done will be of great aid to every member of the association, I am, respectfully,
F. PRESCOTT BULLOCK, Sec.
March 7, 1905.

BUILDINGS IN MINIATURE.

Architects Often Make Clay Models of Important Structures.

Although the architect is still the most important person in the planning of any big public or private building, he often depends on the model maker and not the draftsman to show his patron just how the structure will look when completed. The model maker, in other words, takes the architect's drawings and makes an exact counterpart of the building on a small scale in clay.

When a theater is to be constructed, for example, such a model is made with the greatest minuteness, and every detail is looked at from the point of view of the stage, thus avoiding the possibility that when it is too late some of the seats will be found quite out of range of the performance. In other buildings architectural details that appear excellent on paper are thus sometimes discovered to be inharmonious with the character of the structure as a whole and can be changed before the actual process of their construction has started. By the use of models, in fact, nothing is left to chance and everybody can express his objections before the work is too far advanced to make the necessary changes seriously expensive.

The Best Cough Syrup.

S. L. Apple, Ex-Probate Judge, Ottawa Co., Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

PRESSED TO DEATH.

Fearful Punishment That Obtained Under Old English Law.

Under the old English law if a prisoner stood mute and failed to plead to the indictment a jury was impaneled to determine whether his conduct came from obstinacy or from a natural impediment. According to Blackstone, if the prisoner was found to be obstinately mute and the indictment was for high treason it was settled that his silence was equivalent to a conviction and that judgment and execution should follow. This same rule applied to petit larceny and misdemeanors, but upon appeal or indictments for other felonies or petit treason, according to the ancient law, the prisoner was not deemed convicted; but, because of his obstinacy, he received "the terrible sentence of penance or peine" and was pressed to death.

Blackstone thus describes this punishment: "That the prisoner be remanded to the prison from whence he came and put in a low, dark chamber and there be laid on his back on the bare floor, naked unless decency forbids; that there be placed upon his body as great a weight of iron as he could bear and more; that he should have no sustenance, save only on the first day three morsels of the worst bread, and on the second day three drafts of standing water that should be nearest the prison door, and in this situation this should be alternately his daily diet till he died or (as anciently the judgment ran) till he answered."

During the trials for witchcraft in New England a respectable citizen being so accused, knowing that by reason of the excitement of the times a plea of not guilty and trial would result in a conviction with confiscation of property, and the same judgment would follow a plea of guilty, refused to plead, thereby preventing a conviction and enabling his family to retain his property. The court ordered that he be pressed because of his obstinacy. The order was carried out and the victim died.—Chicago News.

No Benefit No Cost.

If you are weak and worn-out—if you are nervous, irritable, have headache, backache, neuralgia, or periodical pains, it is because you have exhausted your nerve force.

If you cannot sleep, and are thus robbed of the rest which nature demands for the restoration of mental and physical vigor, your system will continue to run down.

Dr. Miles' Nerve restores vitality by soothing and strengthening the nervous system, thus inducing refreshing sleep, and imparting strength and vigor to all the organs of the body.

There are very few instances where Nerve will not benefit; if not, your druggist will refund the money.

"When I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve I had a very sour stomach, with pain extending far around on my left side—attended with extreme nervousness. I dreaded to have night come, as it was impossible for me to sleep. Everything I ate distressed me. Before I had finished one bottle of Nerve there was such a change that my husband bought six more, which has restored me to health."
MRS. JENNIE SIMMS, Bushville, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Muscles That Shut Out Cold.

"The muscles of the skin need training to educate them to contract vigorously on the slightest cold," says a medical writer, "to shut the blood out of the skin so quickly that the precious body heat will not be lost. You notice that when the skin is cold there is a 'goose skin' appearance. This is due to the contraction of the little muscles of the skin. The contraction of the muscles compresses the external blood vessels and drives away the blood from the surface, hardening and thickening the skin, which thereby becomes a better nonconductor. Thus the body temperature is maintained.

"It is because of the constant exposure to cold that the Indian's body is 'all face.' The skin of his whole body, not only that of the face, has learned to take care of itself."

Gospel

It is gospel truth to say that no DISEASES such as rheumatism, neuralgia, biliousness, colic, cold, sore throat, backache, boils, bowel troubles, skin eruptions, and all those caused by local inflammation, can be so quickly, safely and surely cured, as by the use of HAMLINS WIZARD OIL.

It gets right down in, around the nerves and blood vessels of the affected tissues, where the trouble is, and gently soothes and coaxes them back to health.

For all pain, chronic and acute, it is a remarkable remedy, and has no equal in safety and effectiveness in the medical world. Price 50c and $1.00. Fully guaranteed.

For sale and recommended by ALL DRUGGISTS.

A GIRL'S NATURE.

Little Signs That, It Is Said, Reveal Phases of Character.

Much of a girl's nature is betrayed by the little act of brushing a speck off a man's coat. If she picks off the thread or imaginary bit of lint very carefully between the thumb and forefinger it is an indisputable sign that she is a woman of a very practical and executive character.

On the other hand, if a girl should brush the coat lapel of her fiancé very softly and tenderly with the second and third finger of her hand in her endeavor to remove an invisible speck it is a sure sign that she is more sentimental than practical. The man who marries her will live in a continual atmosphere of romance and bad house-keeping.

There is still another type of girl who will brush the speck off a man's coat with a broad sweep of the hand in which all the fingers and thumb play a part. She is in all probability an athletic girl who excels at tennis, golf and the links and who will prove a high spirited, strong minded woman after marriage.

Then, again, the girl who puts a flower in a man's coat with her hand held jauntily upturned from the wrist and the flower held in the tips of her fingers is sure to be something of a coquette, while the maid who gives you only the tips of her fingers when she greets you in the drawing room or public street is probably an ambitious girl.—Chicago Journal.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Col. John M. Fuller of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease by all druggists, at 50c a bottle.

TEACHERS' MEETING WILL BEGIN TODAY

Great Array of Talent Will Be Heard at Auditorium.

AN INSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM

Superintendent Kelley Has Selected a Program Comprising Some of the Most Competent Teachers in the State, Who Will Speak.

The Alachua County Teachers' Institute will begin in this city this evening and will continue until Saturday, the 11th inst. The meetings will be held in the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School, and indications are that the Institute will be well attended, as Superintendent Kelley declares he will accept no excuse, only under the most stringent circumstances.

The program is one full of interest, Dr. Kelley being careful to select only subjects worthy of the occasion. The teachers will be greatly enlightened on some subjects by hearing them.

Hon. William M. Holloway, State Superintendent, is expected and will deliver an address before the Institute Friday evening. The Professor is quite popular in Alachua county among the teachers and no doubt his appearance will attract a large crowd.

The public is cordially invited to attend all sessions of the Institute.

He Had Use For It.
"Now, sir," began the agent, "this book"—

"Ain't got no use for it!" snapped the busy merchant.

"Oh, yes, you have! Look at the title, 'The Art of Conversation and Correct Speech.'"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Precedence.
"Don't you know, sir, that it is impolite to swear before a lady?" The Irishman looked dazed for a moment and then replied: "Sure, mum, I beg yer pardon. But Oi didn't know ye wanted to shwear first."

Cured Consumption.
Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF FLORIDA

Brief Happenings From Various Sections of State.

THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS

Transpiring in "The Land of Flowers." Things "Boiled Down" to Suit the Busy Reader—Items of Interest to All Classes.

A new weekly has been started at Pensacola called State Siftings.

Orlando saloons are allowed to remain open until 12 o'clock midnight.

If they strike oil in Washington county, John D. may decide to come to Florida.

Pensacola's Mardi Gras was a grand success. Pensacola never does things by halves.

The route of the hard road from Ocala to Dunnellon will be settled next week.

The Baptist Witness, published for some time at Orlando, has been moved to DeLand.

H. S. Chambers of Ocala has resigned the office of deputy United States marshal.

Ocala's old Episcopal church is being torn down and a new chapel will be built on the site.

A meeting of the Georgia Interstate Lumbermen will be held at Jacksonville March 23.

A lodge of Elks was instituted at Miami on Monday night by Dr. W. G. Mason, district deputy.

Hereafter, patients at Emergency Hospital, Jacksonville, must pay for their treatment, if able.

Rev. J. J. Parsons, the new pastor of the St. Augustine Baptist Church, preached his first sermon Sunday.

C. O. Richardson, who lives near Miami, dug 195 pounds of sweet potatoes from one vine planted last June.

Two white swans have been placed on Lake Lucerne by the improvement company. They should also purchase a pair of gondolas.

The people around St. Francis, Lake county, are talking of putting up sign boards to guide the weary traveler on his way in that section.

St. Augustine police raided the disorderly houses and $150.50 was added to the city's exchequer. Mercy on us, where is Dr. Munhall, the evangelist.

Eleven counties and the Hillsborough county commissioners have endorsed the plan of a State fair at Tampa this fall, so get your big turnips ready.

On Tuesday the President appointed the following new postmasters in this State: Eula Wooten at Altman, C. C. Martin at Bell, and A. O. Gorham at Reddick.

Hastings and Oakland Irish potato growers are gratified with the crop outlook, which promises good, notwithstanding the bad weather. You can't keep the Irish (potato) down.

The site of the postoffice at Chicora, Polk county, has been changed 300 yards southeast and John M. Young commissioned postmaster. John D. Rogals has been made postmaster at Nettie.

Branford, Suwanee county, on the Suwannee river, is moving in the good roads work and not talking all the time. The location of the place is good for business, having the river for light draught boats and the A. C. L. railway.

Boyd Reese, Arthur McElroy and Miss Gregg of Sanford went out boating Sunday evening, and that was the last seen of them alive. Their bodies were recovered the next morning, the three being locked together in each others' arms as though they were trying to save themselves from their terrible fate.

Muscles That Shut Out Cold.
"The muscles of the skin need training to educate them to contract vigorously on the slightest cold," says a medical writer, "to shut the blood out of the skin so quickly that the precious body heat will not be lost. You notice that when the skin is cold there is a 'goose skin' appearance. This is due to the contraction of the little muscles of the skin. The contraction of the muscles compresses the external blood vessels and drives away the blood from the surface, hardening and thickening the skin, which thereby becomes a better nonconductor. Thus the body temperature is maintained."
"It is because of the constant exposure to cold that the Indian's body is 'all face.' The skin of his whole body, not only that of the face, has learned to take care of itself."

Gospel

It is gospel truth to say that no DISEASES such as rheumatism, neuralgia, biliousness, colic, cold, sore throat, backache, boils, bowel troubles, skin eruptions, and all those caused by local inflammation, can be so quickly, safely and surely cured, as by the use of HAMLINS WIZARD OIL.

It gets right down in, around the nerves and blood vessels of the affected tissues, where the trouble is, and gently soothes and coaxes them back to health.

For all pain, chronic and acute, it is a remarkable remedy, and has no equal in safety and effectiveness in the medical world. Price 50c and $1.00. Fully guaranteed.

For sale and recommended by ALL DRUGGISTS.

A GIRL'S NATURE.

Little Signs That, It Is Said, Reveal Phases of Character.

Much of a girl's nature is betrayed by the little act of brushing a speck off a man's coat. If she picks off the thread or imaginary bit of lint very carefully between the thumb and forefinger it is an indisputable sign that she is a woman of a very practical and executive character.

On the other hand, if a girl should brush the coat lapel of her fiancé very softly and tenderly with the second and third finger of her hand in her endeavor to remove an invisible speck it is a sure sign that she is more sentimental than practical. The man who marries her will live in a continual atmosphere of romance and bad house-keeping.

There is still another type of girl who will brush the speck off a man's coat with a broad sweep of the hand in which all the fingers and thumb play a part. She is in all probability an athletic girl who excels at tennis, golf and the links and who will prove a high spirited, strong minded woman after marriage.

Then, again, the girl who puts a flower in a man's coat with her hand held jauntily upturned from the wrist and the flower held in the tips of her fingers is sure to be something of a coquette, while the maid who gives you only the tips of her fingers when she greets you in the drawing room or public street is probably an ambitious girl.—Chicago Journal.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Col. John M. Fuller of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease by all druggists, at 50c a bottle.

TEACHERS' MEETING WILL BEGIN TODAY

Great Array of Talent Will Be Heard at Auditorium.

AN INSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM

Superintendent Kelley Has Selected a Program Comprising Some of the Most Competent Teachers in the State, Who Will Speak.

The Alachua County Teachers' Institute will begin in this city this evening and will continue until Saturday, the 11th inst. The meetings will be held in the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School, and indications are that the Institute will be well attended, as Superintendent Kelley declares he will accept no excuse, only under the most stringent circumstances.

The program is one full of interest, Dr. Kelley being careful to select only subjects worthy of the occasion. The teachers will be greatly enlightened on some subjects by hearing them.

Hon. William M. Holloway, State Superintendent, is expected and will deliver an address before the Institute Friday evening. The Professor is quite popular in Alachua county among the teachers and no doubt his appearance will attract a large crowd.

The public is cordially invited to attend all sessions of the Institute.

He Had Use For It.

"Now, sir," began the agent, "this book"—

"Ain't got no use for it!" snapped the busy merchant.

"Oh, yes, you have! Look at the title. The Art of Conversation and Correct Speech."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Precedence.

"Don't you know, sir, that it is impolite to swear before a lady?" The Irishman looked dazed for a moment and then replied: "Sure, mum, I beg yer pardon. But Oi didn't know ye wanted to shwear first."

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A LEPAGE PICTURE.

The Work That Brought the Artist
Public Recognition.

The label on a certain spring water still in use was designated by Du Maurier, who was probably not overpaid for it, and a New York artist who has since gained distinction eked out the hardest part of his early struggles by designing advertisements for a commercial house. There have been many more perhaps, but the most conspicuous on record is Bastien Lepage, who through this very fact was forced into fame. He was pursued by unmerciful disaster through his youth in his efforts to study art. His mother worked in the fields to keep a sickly boy at school. At fifteen he went alone to Paris, starved for seven years, painted without success, but still—painted. He had just finished a picture to send to the Salon when Paris was besieged, and he rushed with his comrades to the trenches.

On the first day a shell fell into his studio and destroyed his picture, and another shell burst at his feet, wounding him. He was carried home and lay ill and idle for two years. Then he returned to Paris and, reduced to absolute want, painted cheap fans for a living.

One day a manufacturer of some patent medicine ordered a picture from him to illustrate its virtues. Lepage, who was always sincere, gave his best work to this advertisement. He painted a landscape in the April sunlight. The leaves of tender green quivered in the breeze. A group of beautiful young girls gathered around a fountain from which the elixir of youth sprang in a bubbling stream. Lepage believed there was real merit in it.

"Let me offer it at the Salon?" he asked his patron.

The manufacturer was delighted. "But first paint a rainbow arching over the fountain," he said, "with the name of my medicine upon it."

Lepage refused.

"Then I will not pay you a sou for the picture."

The price of this picture meant bread for months, and the painter had long needed bread. The chance of admission to the salon was small. He hesitated. Then he silenced his hunger and carried the canvas to the salon. It was admitted.

Its great success insured Lepage public recognition, and his later work gained him a place among the greatest of living artists.

PROVERBS OF MEXICO.

The noise is more than the powder—the Mexican way of saying it is "hot air."

When it rains, we all get wet—the Mexican way of saying, "Misfortunes never come singly."

The devil is not astute because he is the devil, but because he is old—used to express the value of experience.

When bread is cut, crumbs are left, expressing the fact that we all have a share in our neighbors' good fortune.

After the child is drowned, cover up the well—the Mexican way of saying, "After the horse is stolen, lock the stable."

It is better to go around than to fall down, expressing the fact that it is often better to avoid a difficulty than to try to overcome it.—Chicago Journal.

Attention is called to the change of Geo. W. Hyde, "The Big Store," which appears in this issue. Mr. Hyde reminds readers of The Sun that spring is here with its summer heat, and that his store is stocked with the richest fabrics for ladies' summer gowns. To show the values, he quotes a few prices, which will appeal at once to the ladies of Gainesville and vicinity. Don't overlook the elegant line in spring styles of ladies', gentlemen's and children's shoes on display and ready for your inspection at this store.

Lexington, Tenn., June 5, 1801.

This is to certify that about March last I suffered intensely with my back and kidneys. Just prior to this I had undergone treatment for bladder trouble and was relieved, except the treatment was followed by the above trouble. It was recommended that I try "Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery." I took one dose on retiring at night, and to my agreeable astonishment, I found myself relieved. One dose did the work. There is no bosh about this. It is wonderful.

Respectfully,

C. R. SCOTT, Proprietor Scott House, formerly county chief clerk, postmaster, etc.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Livingston are happy over the arrival of a bright baby girl. Friends extend congratulations.

Mrs. L. J. Knight and Miss Carrie Miller of Ocala returned to their home yesterday, after a pleasant visit to relatives of the former here.

W. W. Phillips, formerly with The Lake City Index but now holding a lucrative position on the road, was at the Brown House yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Graham and the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. G. W. Graham, are at home again, after several days spent delightfully at Miami. The ladies particularly were delighted with the beauty of the East Coast, which they describe as exquisitely grand. They had the pleasure of meeting Dr. and Mrs. Morgan, well known in this city, having visited here several times. The Doctor and his estimable wife are pleasantly located for the season at Miami.

The Sun desires to state for the benefit of the public that any matter of news, social or otherwise, which is destined to interest the public, would be appreciated if handed into the office or to the reporter. The reporter is no modern "Faust;" he is just an everyday person, and it is impossible for him to be at more than one place at a time—just as much impossible as it is for the reader of this item. It is also impossible for one man to secure absolutely every happening in a city where there is always so much "doing" at the same time as in Gainesville, and if your social function or your news of any other nature is overlooked by your neglect to see that the reporter gets a "cue"—then don't blame anybody but yourself.

The Audience Was Pleased.

Editor Sun: As our just censure should always attend the true event, so also should we applaud the meritorious, whoever they may be or whatever it is. If Mr. Strouse had done nothing more than bring us the charming singer we heard last evening, (Miss Behymer) he would deserve all the praise we could bestow upon him. The songstress must have had her mouth full of nightingales and mocking birds, feeding them on honey the while. She sang us the songs that touched our hearts, and so entirely devoid of self-consciousness was she that she made us all, young men and old, fall in love with her. We hope she will stay longer and come again.

BIG FIGURES ARE THESE.

Jacksonville and Southwestern Railroad Transferred to A. C. L.

Papers transferring all the property of the Jacksonville and Southwestern Railroad to the Atlantic Coast Line were filed Tuesday in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of Duval county. The price paid by the purchaser to the old road is $850,000. The line embraces ninety miles and runs from Jacksonville to Anderson, in Alachua county. It is now being extended to the Gulf coast. The road was sold to the Atlantic Coast Line by C. W. Chase of this city.

A Delightful Party.

A delightful children's party was tendered at the home of Mrs. J. N. Strobhar, East Church street, Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Helen Strobhar, the interesting little niece, who with her mother, is visiting the Strobhar home.

There were about twenty present. It was a beautiful afternoon, and the little folks enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content on the magnificent lawn, indulging in such innocent childish games as are appropriate on such occasions. Delicious refreshments were served, and at a late hour the young guests departed and dreamed of the good time and the goodies they had enjoyed all night long.

A Handsome Office.

Dr. Harry Lee Jarvis is now occupying his new dental office, Rooms 1 and 2, Law Exchange. These offices are probably the most handsomely fitted up in the city, and are something of which Dr. Jarvis should well feel proud. The floor is covered with a magnificent velvet carpet of flower design, while the furniture is neat and quite tasty to the surroundings, being of golden quartered oak, upholstered in leather. The operating room is also nicely and conveniently arranged, and the Doctor may now work with all the ease and comfort possible.

Death of Mrs. Steckert.

Information reached this city yesterday of the death of Mrs. Steckert, the esteemed mother of W. R. Steckert, which occurred in Jacksonville in the early morning. No particulars of the death could not be learned, since Mr. and Mrs. Steckert were at the bedside. Friends of Mr. Steckert extend sincere sympathy.

Kuropatkin is Making a Stubborn Resistance—Mikado's Troops Realize That They Must Make the Battle Decisive—Great Battle Raging.

Tokio, March 8.—A dispatch says the Japanese captured Machuntan at 8 o'clock this morning. Machuntan is a great pass thirty-five miles east of Mukden and fifteen miles southeast of Fushun. THE CHAUTAUQUA.

Program of Rare Literary Merit Presented Yesterday.

The warm weather had but a slight effect on the attendance at the Tabernacle on Wednesday afternoon, and there was a very good sized audience on hand at 2:30 o'clock to listen to the humorous and pathetic poems recited by William A. Bone, the popular writer. His selections were good, and rendered in his careful manner. He has won the esteem of all by his modest manner and gentlemanly bearing, his original poems being possessed of literary merit. He was assisted by Miss Rhea Hall Behmer, contralto, who favored the audience with two solos.

Evening Session.

The evening program consisted of a grand concert by the Tri-Century Concert Company, Indianapolis, Ind. This company comprises three ladies of rare musical ability, and they gave a very pleasing program of musical numbers, also choice readings in costume. The entertainment was enjoyed by a large audience, which it was evident from the applause appreciated each number.

Today's Program.

By special request Miss LaDell, the popular elocutionist, will give another of her highly pleasing programs at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

At 8 p. m. the Tri-Century Concert Company will entertain with an entire change of program.

NEW YORK SUBWAY TIE UP CONTINUES

Strikers and Company Officials Refuse the Proposition to Arbitrate. Mayor McClellan and Civic Federation Trying to Adjust the Trouble.

New York, March 8.—The strike of the 5,000 employees of the elevated and subway continues, and beyond some improvement in the movement of trains the conditions remain the same.

The offer of arbitration by Mayor McClellan and the National Civic Federation were refused by both sides, each being eager to fight to the bitter end.

There was no violence this morning, but trouble is feared later. The company officials declare the strike is broken, and that by Saturday trains will be running on schedule.

COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL NEXT WEEK

Case of Fletcher Watson Set for Monday Morning.

A NEW JURY WAS SELECTED

And a Special Venire Summoned in the Fletcher Watson Case—One Prisoner Plead Guilty to Selling Liquor. Another Manslaughter.

The third day of the third week of the circuit court convened at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. His Honor Judge Wills presiding.

The first case to come before the court was that of the State vs. Isham Anderson, charged with murder. B. T. Ellis was sworn in as assistant prosecuting attorney in this case. The prisoner being in court was arraigned and pleaded guilty of manslaughter, whereupon the court sentenced him to serve five years at hard labor in the State prison.

The next case called was that of State vs. Fletcher Watson, indicted for murder. The defendant being in court in person, as well as by his attorneys, it was agreed to continue the case, and the same was set for Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

In the case of the State vs. Henry McMillan, selling liquors in a dry county, the defendant, who had heretofore been arraigned and pleaded not guilty, withdrew said plea and by his attorney pleaded guilty. Sentence was suspended by the court, and the defendant, who had previously been under bond, was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

It being necessary to hold a term of the court for the fourth week, Judge Wills, in the presence of the clerk and sheriff, drew twelve names from the box to serve on the regular panel as jurors for this term as follows: J. B. Mixson, A. J. Anderson, J. H. Avera, J. D. Vaughn, A. V. Ellis, A. C. Blitch, E. J. Baird, Lucius Hall, T. J. McRae, F. M. Ramey, J. W. Dell, A. L. Webb. The clerk, by order of the court, issued a special venire of forty names to serve for the coming week on the case of Fletcher Watson, when court adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

NEW BRICK STORES TO BE ERECTED

L. L. Hill Will Erect Handsome Building on East Liberty.

A PRESSED BRICK FRONT

Building Will be of Brick With Handsome Front—Will be One Story, and Will Contain Four Rooms, Well Ventilated and Well Lighted Stores.

Gainesville is soon to have another elegant brick block, which is to be erected on East Liberty, between East Main and South University streets. The builder will be L. L. Hill, who will let the contract to C. E. Whiting, and as soon as material can be placed upon the ground work will begin.

While this building will be for the present only one story, it will be modern in every respect. The block will contain four stores 20x40 feet in dimensions each. The material to be used will be of best quality brick, the front being pressed brick. It will be so constructed that Mr. Hill may at any time add another story.

Gainesville in all her history has never experienced such a building boom as for the past two years, and it is doubtful whether any city of the same population in the South can equal it. During a period of two years there has been approximately 140 residences, ranging in price from $500 to $7,000, with an average of $3,000 erected, nineteen substantial stores, which this proposed addition will increase to twenty-three, to say nothing of the numerous factories, mills, and public buildings, and still the rush goes on. They are not cheap buildings, but as a rule are of the most modern and handsome designs. Carpenters, bricklayers and other mechanics experience no difficulty in securing employment in Gainesville.

MELROSE HAPPENINGS.

Young Ladies Cause Much Uneasiness. Melrose Society.

Melrose, March 8.—Notices are issued inviting the citizens to help clean up Eliam cemetery on March 9th.

J. A. Goodson has been appointed administrator of the estate of his father, Alex Goodson.

Miss E. Miller of Springfield, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Caldwell.

Harry Lewis of North Gainesville is in town for the purpose of repairing the windmill on the Waters estate.

The Oakhurst cottage is being much improved by a new coat of paint, E. F. Ford doing the work.

Several of the young ladies of Melrose gave their parents and friends quite a scare on Thursday night. They had gone out for a row on the lake, expecting to be back shortly, but darkness set in and they did not appear. Their friends got worried and began to organize searching parties, when a telephone message from the Maxwell grove brought the news of their being alright. The lake had become rough and the young ladies concluded to come home by team.

The town council met in regular session on Tuesday evening. Among other business done was the purchase of ten seats for the town hall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Disbrow of Philadelphia are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitehead.

Motorman Is Dragged Under Car.

In an effort to adjust his car, the motorman was struck by the clons rattling and dragged under the car.

The Alachua County Teachers' Institute will begin in this city this evening and will continue until Saturday, the 11th inst. The meetings will be held in the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School, and indications are that the Institute will be well attended, as Superintendent Kelley declares he will accept no excuse, only under the most stringent circumstances.

The program is one full of interest, Dr. Kelley being careful to select only subjects worthy of the occasion. The teachers will be greatly enlightened on some subjects by hearing them.

Hon. William M. Holloway, State Superintendent, is expected and will deliver an address before the Institute Friday evening. The Professor is quite popular in Alachua county among the teachers and no doubt his appearance will attract a large crowd.

The public is cordially invited to attend all sessions of the Institute.

The car in which the miners were returning from work shot down the side of the mountain, and was crushed against the foot of the mountain. The dead are Andrew Hunt, William McCurley, John McCurley and Edward McElloth.

A FEAST OF GOOD THINGS ENJOYED

By All Who Attended the Chautauqua Exercises.

SERMON, LECTURE, MUSIC

Entertainment for the Masses—Brilliant Address by Dr. Blackstone—Scholarly Lecture by Rev. C. L. Herald—Music, Recitations and Poems.

The Tabernacle was closed until 5 p. m. on Sunday, when Rev. Dr. Strouse conducted the vesper service, and there was a very fine audience in attendance.

In the evening at 8 o'clock the grand old man, Dr. Blackstone, delivered a profound address on "England's National Sin," taking the evils of the opium habit in India, practiced with the full knowledge of the British government and not the slightest effort made to prevent the destruction of her subjects through this pernicious habit. The thorough knowledge of this eminent divine with his subject commanded the attention of his hearers to every word of his instructive account of this revolting practice, which is debauching these benighted people.

The lecture at the Tabernacle Monday at 2:30 p. m. was one of the best so far delivered at the Chautauqua. The topic in the printed program was changed to "Thought and Culture," and the lecturer, Rev. Chas. L. Herald of Jackson, Ohio, showed by his arguments his mastering of the subject. In speaking of culture, the reverend gentleman was of the opinion that it was not wholly confined to Boston, and that he had met culture in Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia.

His illustration of wealth without culture was forceful, and his explanation of the injury of beauty brought on by evil thoughts was very strongly portrayed in his story of Leonardo's wonderful painting of the Christ with the Madonna when he selected the face of a beautiful boy in a church choir. In later years he desired a face to represent Judas, who betrayed Christ, and went to a prison, where he found his subject. Afterward it was discovered that the two faces were the same. Evil thoughts in the intervening years had wrought the change.

He closed with a beautiful illustration of the ideals, and said that the one ideal he had chosen was the Christ. "I want to be good," he said, "and I look to Christ, the Nazarene, for all my goodness. He is my ideal."

Evening Program.

The evening program had an array of talent that was highly entertaining. Miss Marietta La Dell in dramatic readings and W. A. (Bill) Bone in poetical readings. Both of these artists acquitted themselves with credit.

The musical specialties of McClean & Shelton, the originators of the famous musical novelty, the "Acquarian Chimes," making music—sweet music emanate from bottles. They also rendered harp, mandolin and guitar solos, and a piccolo solo by Mr. McClean and cornet solo by A. V. Shelton were both very fine.

THE CHAUTAUQUA.

Large Attendance and Interesting Programs.

The interest in the Chautauqua seems to be unabated, and the attendance at the sessions keeps up remarkably well.

The exercises at 2:30 p. m. yesterday consisted of the entertainment by William A. Bone, the poet, who recites his own productions in a very clever manner. He is a rising young man in his chosen field.

Miss Marietta LaDell, the dramatic reader, gave several pleasing selections. She is a lady of real ability in her line of entertainment, and her recitations of little girl selections are the best on the platform today.

Evening Session.

The evening session opened with a brief program by Shelton & McClean, the musical team, and they gave general satisfaction. The musical bottles are quite a novelty. Miss LaDell also gave a fine rendering of "The Chariot Race" in Ben Hur. At 8 o'clock Rev. Chas. L. Herald, the brilliant Presbyterian orator, told of "Life on a Man o' War," and he opened the eyes of the young men who might be contemplating entering the navy. Being in the navy himself he speaks from experience, and he seems to have stood the hardships and come out with a fund of useful knowledge, which he imparts to his hearers with an address that commands strict attention.

MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR

REGULATES THE LIVER, STOMACH, BOWELS, KIDNEYS.

The inventor of the famous "TERRELL SCRAPE," a man known wherever plows are sold and used, says:

"I have used MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR for 10 or 12 years in my family for the stomach, liver and kidneys, and find it is the best medicine I have ever used. It is also a sure specific for pain in the back or under the shoulders. I have recommended it in numerous cases to my workmen, when sick and unable to work, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. H. D. TERRELL, President Atlanta Plow Co., Atlanta."

MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR.

A NEW POSTMASTER.

Robinson and Chubb Worked With Success in Hildreth's Appointment.

There is going to be a new postmaster at Live Oak, one of the most progressive cities in Florida, and C. N. Hildreth, a deserving young man of that town, plucked the plum. This was brought about by the clever work and influence of Hon. W. G. Robinson, register, and Hon. H. S. Chubb, receiver of the United States land office in this city. These gentlemen are chairmen of the Republican State Central Committee and the committee of the Second Congressional District, who wield a great power in the Republican politics of Florida.

For some reason there has been great dissatisfaction in the postmaster's office at Live Oak, and a change was apparently desired. Mr. Hildreth, who is an excellent young man, full of energy, realized this fact and went to work with a determination, with the result that he secured the position. The appointment will no doubt be received with general satisfaction by the people of Live Oak, who, without regard to politics, endorsed Mr. Hildreth.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Col. John M. Fuller of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease by all druggists, at 50c a bottle.

A SAD DEATH.

Mrs. Bradshaw, Ninety-Five Years of Age, Died at High Springs.

Mrs. Quintine Bradshaw, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of High Springs, died at her home in that city Monday of the past week.

Deceased was in her ninety-fifth year at the time of her death and had been in poor health for some time, hence the death, while sad, was not unexpected. She was a noble Christian lady and in her active life accomplished a great deal of good.

Mrs. Bradshaw is survived by five daughters, Mesdames C. G. McKinney, W. W. Struble, Mary Downing and Misses Tobitha and Amanda Bradshaw, and one son, J. A. Bradshaw of Wacahoota. She leaves quite a number of grandchildren.

The funeral was held at Forest Grove church Tuesday, Rev. E. B. Clark conducting the ceremonies.

To the bereaved relatives The Sun, with other friends, extends sympathy.

A SABBATH MARRIAGE.

C. W. Campbell and Miss Myra Smith Were Happily Wedded.

There was a happy wedding at 500 East Lassiter street Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the contracting parties being C. W. Campbell of Paradise and Miss Myra, the accomplished daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Smith.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother and was a quiet affair, only members of the family and a few most intimate friends being present. Rev. Thomas P. Hay of the First Presbyterian Church officiated.

The groom is a member of the firm of J. B. Padgett & Co., extensive naval stores operators, Paradise, and is regarded as one of the best young men in the county. The bride has a large circle of friends, by whom she is greatly admired.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell departed immediately after the ceremony for Paradise, where they will make their future home. The Sun extends congratulations.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of consumption, pneumonia, etc., you are lost if you do not get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better, when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed, at all drug stores. Price, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Large Fish Shipments.

The Gainesville Fish Company, of which John L. Chesser is manager, has enjoyed a remarkable success recently in the matter of shipments. The firm is operating on Alachua Lake, and is catching a large quantity of the finest members of the fluky tribe, which are shipped to all points and are realizing nice prices. There has been shipped by the Gainesville Fish Company within the past two days no less than twenty barrels of fine fish, and this alone gives employment to a number of men. The fish industry in this section is apparently small, but it is one of the great industrial feeders, as a great many men are employed in the business.

Convulsion, Fits, then Epilepsy.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has been so successful in curing these brain-wrecking diseases that there is every reason to believe that even the most hopeless cases can be benefited, if not fully restored.

We will be pleased to refer any one thus afflicted to many who now enjoy the blessing of health, after years of hopeless suffering.

"I have a son that had brain fever when two years old, followed by fits of the worst type, and he was pronounced incurable. I spent hundreds of dollars for him, without relief. After about fifteen years he became so bad that we sent him to Longcliff hospital for the insane, at Longsight, Ind. He was there nearly three years, but he continued to grow worse, so we brought him home July 30, 1902, in an awful condition. He had lost his mind almost entirely. He hardly knew one of the family; could not even find his bed; was a total wreck. He had from 5 to 10 fits a day. We were urged to try Dr. Miles' Nervine, and before the first bottle was used, we could see a change for the better. We have given it to him ever since, and he has had but two very light spells since last August, 1903; and then he was not well other ways. We pronounce him cured, as he can work and go anywhere. If any one wishes to ask any questions concerning this, they are at liberty to do so."

E. H. BUNNELL, Lincoln, Ind.
Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

The first number of The True Democrat, published by John G. Collins at Tallahassee, made its appearance on Friday morning. The Sun wishes the publisher and his neatly gotten up five-column eight-page paper abundant success.

If we can only keep the "good roads" movement up Gainesville will soon be what it should be, the best city in Florida. We never heard a visitor speak disparagingly of the city, unless it was a chronic kicker or a person who thought it conveyed the idea that they had just come from the place where the streets are paved with gold, or some other high-class metal.

The Odd Fellows' Home and Sanitarium of this city is becoming more popular each year, and as a boarding place for winter visitors, as well as a home for the sick, is a most excellent place to stop. Every Odd Fellow in the United States and Canada should know what the brethren of Florida are trying to do for the good of the order, and, if they are true Odd Fellows, should not turn down the appeal for aid.

The city election will be held on Tuesday, the 11th day of April, 1905, and there is need of good men being elected. Gainesville is now making a steady advance forward and there will be an opportunity offered to do much for the city in the year to come, and anything that is worth doing at all is worth doing well. A concerted action for the best interests of our city is all that is needed, as nature has done as much for Gainesville as any city in Florida. It is up to the people to do the rest, if we shall prosper.

GET BUSY.

The throngs of people that are coming to Florida this winter surpass anything ever before known in the history of the State. Every hotel and boarding house is filled to its capacity, and in many places where there has been numerous new hotels, boarding houses and cottages erected for this winter's traffic, they are now crowded to their utmost. The like has never been known, and the severe cold that has been experienced in the North this winter, will be the cause of more people coming here next winter. Out of the thousands who come many will be looking for the most healthy location, and Gainesville should now begin to make room for them, as there is no place in Florida that can back up her assertions in regard to a healthy location better than Gainesville, with the pure ozone and purest water in the State.

With a number of cottages for men of moderate means who come South for their health in winter, we should have five hundred more people for four months of each year. Many will also come here to live permanently, where they can enjoy good health.

The only objection many people have to locating in Florida for a permanent residence, is the delusion that it is so very hot in mid-summer. When they learn that the heat is not more oppressive here than in the North during the summer, they will be content to remain here.

The time is ripe now to let the people know what we have at Gainesville, and the only way to do that is with printers' ink. Get busy now.

WORTH OF THE FARMER.

The more one goes into figures on the wealth of the American farmer, the more staggering, or incomprehensible, the amount becomes, says The Farm and Home Sentinel. If the farmers of this country have in recent years come to the fore as winners of wealth, the prosperity is due to their own persistent effort and honest toil. One seeks in vain to find where the farmers have combined their wealth or output and placed their money or farm products in combination akin to a trust. What the farmer has done has been largely due to individual effort. He has been a seeker after knowledge through his farm journals and the agricultural and similar associations to which he belongs. The farmers of America have been producing more wealth than do any other people on earth. Last year they cleaned up nearly $5,000,000,000 on their crops. Out of the proceeds of the corn crop last year the farmers could have paid the national debt and still have had enough money to run the government six or eight months. All that the gold mines of the entire world have produced since Columbus discovered America do not equal the value of the food supply raised on American farms during the last two years, while this year's product is over six times the amount of the capital stock of all national banks; it comes within $750,000,000 of equaling the value of the manufactures of 1900, less than the cost of materials used; it is twice the sum of our exports and imports for a year; it is two and half times the gross earnings from the operations of the railways; it is three and a half times the value of all minerals produced in this country, including coal, iron, iron ore, gold, silver and quarried stone.

RAISING SHEEP.

The farmer who has given a casual thought to the keeping of a few sheep on his premises knows full well that they are of benefit in more ways than one, and as a meat product are equal, if not superior, to cattle or hogs, the meat produced being as healthy as any that can be eaten and far more cleanly than any other raised on the farm.

It requires about the same amount of feed to produce a pound of flesh on a steer as on a sheep. The investigators show that to be true as a rule. But sheep will thrive on weeds and grass that cattle will not touch, and when it is remembered that sheep produce a clip of wool every year in addition to mutton, the balance is in favor of the sheep.

It is often said that it does not pay to raise sheep on high-priced land. If that is true, then it does not pay to raise cattle or hogs on the same land. It costs no more, pound for pound, for one than the other.

Fat lambs always find ready sale at good prices, and choice lambs are generally scarce at high prices. If lambs are kept until they grow a fleece the price of the wool is generally the profit of the sheep over the fat cow or the fat steer. Of course sheep will not fatten on weeds or brush or thrive in cold, wet lots upon neglect. But they will show up in the sale pens favorably with steers or cows if they are given the same feed and the same care, or even less.

Sheep can be fattened in less time than cattle. It is generally found that the steer is not finished in one hundred days, but must be topped off with about two weeks' extra feeding. The sheep can be ready and prime for the market in one hundred days.

GAME LAW.

The following extracts from the game law of Florida are published so that many who are not familiar with it may read and avoid making any mistakes regarding the killing or capturing of protected game:

"No person shall, within the State of Florida, kill or catch or have in his or her possession, living or dead, any wild bird, nor shall he purchase, offer or expose for sale any such wild bird after they have been killed or caught. No part of the plumage, skin or body protected by this section shall be sold or had in possession for sale. The following are considered as game birds: Swan, geese, brant, sea ducks, rails, coots, mud hens, plovers, surf birds, snipe, woodcock, sand piper, tattler, curlews, wild turkeys, grouse, prairie chicken, pheasants, partridges and quail, turtle doves, wild pigeons and robins."

The law provides a fine of $5 for each and every breach of the law and a further fine of $5 for each and every part of a bird found in the possession of any person.

Many of the birds enumerated above are allowed to be killed at certain seasons, but the robin is protected at all times. Lately the robins have appeared in great numbers and the hunters have succeeded in killing many of these birds.

CROP REPORT.

From the State crop report received by the department of agriculture, March 1, it is learned that the damage to the orange trees by the freeze of January 24 to 28, 1905, throughout the State was 13 per cent, to grape fruit trees 15 per cent, and to other fruit trees 21 per cent. The proportion of oranges on the trees at the time was 23 per cent, and they were damaged 64 per cent.

The damage to trees consists almost entirely in dropping of the leaves, and in the majority of cases, that is only partial, and in many others none were touched, however slight.

The vegetable crops, of course, suffered much heavier than the fruit, but even with these, the first estimates of damage was greatly exaggerated; the actual loss will not exceed 44 per cent.

Judging by its finding in the Swayne case, the Senate is determined to convince the nation that its uselessness has not been overestimated.—Detroit Free Press.

St. Augustine will have a new opera house. Gainesville should fall in line, and it is quite certain an up-to-date house could be made to pay here. It would not be a gold mine, but an opera house of moderate size and with a seating capacity for about a thousand, would supply a long felt want.

The appointment of George B. Cortelyou as Postmaster-General and his resignation as chairman of the Republican National Committee, were almost simultaneous. But its all right for him, although a poor rural mail carrier at $700 per year has to not mix in politics.

The President has appointed Charles W. Anderson, colored, internal revenue collector of New York. It would be safe to wager a ten-cent cigar to a frozen orange that there was, is now and ever will be, some kicking even in New York about the appointment.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial at Portland, Oregon, opens on June 1st, and closes October 15th. The cost of this exposition is placed at $5,000,000, and the exhibits five times that sum. Twenty States and fifteen foreign nations will participate.

Greene and Gaynor, the two men who should be serving time, are still held at Montreal, the Dominion commissioner having declared that the statutes gave him no power to accept bail for them.

Revivalist George Stuart will undoubtedly put in most of the summer in Florida, as he has undertaken to improve the moral atmosphere of Tampa.

Before the streets are paved we should have a system of sewers put in. The location of Gainesville is most excellent for a good sewerage system.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS IS NOW COMPLETE

Important Meeting of Ministerial Association Tuesday.

MOST INTERESTING SESSION

The Religious Census Discloses a Few Startling Conditions Existing Which Were Not Known Before—North Gainesville to Have Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ministerial Association of Gainesville was held at the manse of the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon, a full membership being present with the exception of Rev. Francis H. Craighill of Holy Trinity Church and Robert McClellan of the First Baptist Church.

The report of Secretary F. Prescott Bullock on the religious census, which has been in the course of compilation by the ministers of the various churches for the past three months, was made and received, and the papers of the city requested to publish same for general information. Secretary Bullock was tendered a vote of thanks for the excellent and systematic manner in which the work had been conducted.

Upon motion of Rev. S. B. Rogers, it was decided to give the evening of the fifth Sunday in April for a union Sabbath-school service, and a committee of one from each church was appointed to select the place of meeting and arrange a program.

Rev. Thos. P. Hay of the First Presbyterian Church stated for the information of the association that Dr. Phillips of Richmond, Va., a noted divine in the methods of Sunday school work, will be here March 16 and 17.

It was decided to give North Gainesville a full week's service, beginning March 20, which will be conducted by all the ministers of this city, the ministers alternating each evening.

The Religious Census.

To the Ministerial Association, Gainesville, Fla.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to present the following report of the religious census of this city, as taken by you of your representatives. I regret to say that owing to the unavoidable difficulties arising from changes to the ministerial charges in some of the churches, and the indifferent manner in which some of the canvassers allowed their cards to be filled out, the census is not as full in some respects as we could have received it, but the work has been thorough enough to give us much valuable data and probably comes very near the true number of white children who are bona fide residents of the place.

Taken as a whole, I think that the information obtained will compare most favorably, for Gainesville in a religious point of view, with other places of its size in this or any other State. At the same time the figures will show that each and every minister in the city has ample material to work upon for the increase of his church and Sunday school.

In taking the census there were 429 households visited, containing from two to eight adults, and among these were found members of thirteen different religious sects, namely: Baptists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians, Methodists, Lutherans, Advents, Congregationalists, Christadelphians, Roman Catholics, Christians, Unitarians, German Reformed and Christ Church followers. Among all those families, there was but one instance where information was refused as to church membership or religious preference, and but ninety-seven grown persons were found who were willing to admit and have it go on record that they had no religious belief or affiliation with any church.

The census shows that there are 743 white children permanent residents of the city, and of these 378 are reported as attending some Sunday school, while 370 are non-attendants. Of these last about one-fourth, or say 100, are too young to attend Sunday school, and the remaining 270 do not attend, it is to be supposed, because of the laxity and indifference of the parents as to the religious training of their children, for no valid excuse was given, except in one instance where the mother stated she could not send her children on account of being too poor to dress them properly.

This large number of children who are known to be not connected with any Sunday school is increased from the fact that many of those reported to their parents as going to Sunday school, are not seen in the schools except on special occasions, and often not at all.

Copies of all the census cards have been made, and each minister is in possession of all those belonging to his congregation and Sunday school, and the secretary has retained a complete set for future reference.

Trusting that the information obtained from the work done will be of great aid to every member of the association, I am, respectfully,

F. PRESCOTT BULLOCK, Sec.
March 7, 1905.

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

Mrs. A. R. VanDeventer Entertained Friends in Royal Style.

One of the smartest society events transpiring in this city for some time was the reception and card party tendered Monday afternoon by Mrs. A. R. VanDeventer at the elegant home of Hon. Walter G. Robinson, from 4 to 6 o'clock, when about sixty of the best people of Gainesville enjoyed the hospitality of this estimable lady.

This event has been the subject of much discussion by those who had the honor of an invitation for several days, and had been anticipated with a great deal of pleasure.

Mrs. VanDeventer was gracefully assisted in receiving by Mesdames H. P. Robinson, L. C. Lynch and F. D. Warner, while Mesdames John Chesnut, J. M. Haile and M. B. Saunders, and Misses Helen McArthur, Eva Haile, Lois Haile, Alice Nichols, Rose Lynch and Carrie Miller were in the dining-room. Miss Jessie Bodiford presided at the punch bowl.

The tea tables were prettily and tastefully decorated with pink carnations. The rooms were also decorated with carnations, violets and evergreens.

The refreshments consisted of chicken salad, chocolate and coffee temptingly served.

The evening was devoted to progressive whist, and the contest was prosecuted with a great deal of interest. There were fourteen tables.

The married ladies' prize, a handsome bonbon spoon, was cut for by Mesdames J. M. Haile, A. S. Wooley and J. A. Goodwin, the latter being the winner.

The young ladies' prize, a handsome silver embroidery set, was also "in litigation," the honors falling even to Misses Budd of Monticello, Carrie Miller and Ida Burkheim. Miss Burkheim having won on the cut, the prize was awarded to her. The ladies' consolation prize, a neat silver belt pin, fell to the "misfortune" of Mrs. John Chesnut.

One of the most amusing features of the evening was the awarding of the gentlemen's consolation prize—the only prize offered to the gentlemen, which was awarded to L. C. Lynch. This prize consisted of a neat leather medal with date and reading as follows: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." Attached to the medal was a tiny silver bangle containing the words "I am a" with a lobster embossed on the coin. Mr. Lynch's friends indulged in a great deal of fun over the presentation, but the winner declared he was glad to get the prize, and it made no difference to him how much his "jealous associates" had to say about it.

The gowns worn by the ladies at the evening function were as fashionable as can be found anywhere, many of them being exquisitely handsome.

BIG FIGURES ARE THESE.

Jacksonville and Southwestern Railroad Transferred to A. C. L.

Papers transferring all the property of the Jacksonville and Southwestern Railroad to the Atlantic Coast Line were filed Tuesday in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of Duval county. The price paid by the purchaser to the old road is $650,000. The line embraces ninety miles and runs from Jacksonville to Anderson, in Alachua county. It is now being extended to the Gulf coast. The road was sold to the Atlantic Coast Line by C. W. Chase of this city.

A Handsome Office.

Dr. Harry Lee Jarvis is now occupying his new dental office, Rooms 1 and 2, Law Exchange. These offices are probably the most handsomely fitted up in the city, and are something of which Dr. Jarvis should well feel proud. The floor is covered with a magnificent velvet carpet of flower design, while the furniture is neat and quite tasty to the surroundings, being of golden quartered oak, upholstered in leather. The operating room is also nicely and conveniently arranged, and the Doctor may now work with all the ease and comfort possible.

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP-- RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

A Southern Judge Cured.

Judge Horatio J. Goss, Hartwell, Ga., writes:

"Some five or six years ago I had a very severe spell of grip which left me with systemic catarrh.

"A friend advised me to try your Peruna, which I did, and was immediately benefited and cured. The third bottle completed the cure."—H. J. Goss.

Cured in a Few Weeks.

Miss Jean Cowgill, Griswold Opera House, Troy, N. Y., is the leading lady with the Aubrey Stock Co. She writes the following:

"During the past winter of 1901, I suffered for several weeks from a severe attack of grip, which left a serious catarrhal condition of the throat and head.

"Some one suggested Peruna. As a last resort, after wasting much time and money on physicians, I tried the remedy faithfully, and in a few weeks was as well as ever."—Jean Cowgill.

Grip Resulted in Catarrh.

Miss Alice Bielke, Treasurer Young Women's Society of the Lutheran Church, Menasha, Wis., writes:

"I gratefully acknowledge the good that Peruna did me after I had been sick with la grippe which left me in a very weak and emaciated condition, with catarrhal trouble of the head and ears.

"My mother suggested that I take it to build up my strength and rid myself of the troublesome catarrh, and it acted with wonderful speed.

"I was able to resume my work inside of two months and I am in splendid health now."—Alice Bielke.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results.—It cures.

LaGrippe Is Epidemic Catarrh.

It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the classes are alike subject to la grippe. None are exempt—all are liable.

Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, has been shortened by the busy American to read "grip."

Without intending to do so, a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some hideous giant with awful grip had clutched us in its fatal clasp.

Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of a terrible monster.

Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? If so, read the following letters.

These testimonials speak for themselves as to the efficacy of Peruna in cases of la grippe or its after-effects:

Saved by Pe-ru-na.

Hon. James R. Guill is one of the oldest and most esteemed men of Omaha, Neb. He has done much to make it what it is, serving on public boards a number of times. He endorses Peruna in the following words:

"I am 68 years old, am hale and hearty and Peruna has helped me attain it. Two years ago I had la grippe—my life was despaired of. Peruna saved me."—J. R. Guill.

A Relative of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Silas S. Lincoln, who resides at 913 I street, N. W., Washington, D. C., has the honor of being third cousin to Abraham Lincoln. He writes:

"I had la grippe five times before using your medicine. Four years ago I began the use of Peruna, since which time I have not been troubled with that disease.

"I can now do as much work at my desk as I ever could in my life. I have gained more than ten pounds in weight."—S. S. Lincoln.

Pe-ru-na Not Only Cured La Grippe but Benefitted the Whole System.

Miss Alice M. Dressler, 1814 N. Bryant Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes:

"Last spring I suffered from la grippe and was partially cured, but the bad after-effects remained through the summer and somehow I did not get strong as I was before.

"One of my college friends who was visiting me asked me try Peruna and I did so and found it all and more than I had expected.

"It not only cured me of the catarrh but restored me to perfect health, and built up the entire system."—Alice M. Dressler.

A Delightful Party.

A delightful children's party was tendered at the home of Mrs. J. N. Strobhar, East Church street, Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Helen Strobhar, the interesting little niece, who with her mother, is visiting the Strobhar home.

There were about twenty present. It was a beautiful afternoon, and the little folks enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content on the magnificent lawn, indulging in such innocent childish games as are appropriate on such occasions. Delicious refreshments were served, and at a late hour the young guests departed and dreamed of the good time and the goodies they had enjoyed all night long.

The Audience Was Pleased.

Editor Sun: As our just censure should always attend the true event, so also should we applaud the meritorious, whoever they may be or whatever it is. If Mr. Barousse had done nothing more than bring us the charming singer we heard last evening, (Miss Behymer) he would deserve all the praise we could bestow upon him. The songstress must have had her month full of nightingales and mocking birds, feeding them on honey the while. She sang us the songs that touched our hearts, and so entirely devoid of self-consciousness was she that she made us all, young men and old, fall in love with her. We hope she will stay longer and come again.

MR. FRENCH'S LIFE.

Autobiography of Good Man, Recently Deceased, Well Known Here.

The Sub-Peninsula Sun, St. Petersburg, publishes the biography of Mr. M. B. French, recently deceased. Inasmuch as Mr. French resided in Gainesville nearly twenty years and had many friends throughout this section who will be interested, The Sun publishes in part this article, as follows:

"M. B. French was born in Durhamville, N. Y., July 8th, 1826, and in 1847 went with his parents to Madison, in what was then the Territory of Wisconsin. He was essentially a self-made man and for thirty-eight years was extensively engaged in the real estate business. He saw the town of Madison grow from a small village until it became the capital of the State, and in that time accumulated considerable property, and at the time of his death owned valuable real estate in Wisconsin and Florida.

"He was married in Madison, Oct. 19, 1853, to Elizabeth Page, who survives him, their married life extending happily through a period of more than fifty years. They had no children, but an adopted daughter, Mrs. E. W. Hawley, who died in 1900.

"Twenty years ago the doctors in his home State told Mr. French that he had a hopeless case of consumption. He removed with his wife to Gainesville, Florida, and about three years ago came to this place and built his home.

"Mr. French was an earnest member of the Methodist church and gave liberally to charity. He was an enthusiastic Odd Fellow and with his friend David H. Wright had installed more lodges than any other man in the State of Wisconsin."

GUARDS ARE O. K. SAID INSPECTORS

Large Company Turned Out for Inspection Tuesday Night.

BOYS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED

By Inspecting Officers, Who Stated That the Guards Was One of the Strongest and Most Efficiently Drilled in Florida State Troops.

Adjutant-General J. C. R. Foster of the Florida State Troops and Colonel S. T. Norvell of the United States Army inspected the Gainesville Guards at their armory Tuesday evening.

In response to General Order No. 1, commanding all members of the company to be present, Captain Layton was enabled to make a fine showing, and the men looked their best in their natty uniforms.

After a thorough inspection of the arms, accoutrements, etc., the company participated in a drill. The inspecting officers pronounced the company one of the strongest and most efficiently drilled in the State, which was indeed a compliment to both officers and men.

MISS YOUNG'S FUNERAL.

Held from the Episcopal Church and Largely Attended—Floral Tributes.

The funeral of Miss Winne Adeen Young, whose sad death occurred Sunday evening, was held from Holy Trinity Episcopal Church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Francis H. Craighill officiating. The edifice was crowded to the doors with friends of the deceased, who had assembled to pay the last tribute of honor and respect to one whom they held so dear.

Deceased having been a former member of the choir, several favorite hymns were rendered, after which the remains were borne to Evergreen cemetery, where the interment was held. Mr. Craighill, in the course of his remarks, paid beautiful tributes to the deceased, which were very impressive.

The casket was literally covered with beautiful and fragrant flowers, and in the procession to the cemetery nearly all the occupants bore wreaths and bouquets of roses and evergreens.

The death of Miss Young removes one of Gainesville's fairest and most popular young ladies, and while she is gone her memory will remain green and sweet with her relatives and friends.

MADE FINE SUGGESTIONS.

Hon. J. Murdock Barrs Talks to Citizens on Charter Question.

Hon. J. Murdock Barrs, city attorney of Jacksonville and one of the most thoroughly posted attorneys on municipal law and practice in the State, was in the city on professional business Monday, and while here, by special request, appeared before the committee on special charter and a number of prominent citizens of Gainesville at Dutton & Co.'s bank.

Col. Barrs made a very able and exhaustive address, covering the entire subject of municipal charters and laws, offering many valued suggestions relative to the proposed new charter, and in conclusion stated that he would be glad to offer any further suggestions in the matter, volunteering his legal advice and service in this direction.

The remarks of Col. Barrs were duly appreciated, and those present expressed themselves as being highly enlightened by the advice.

THE COUNCIL MEETING.

Little Business of Importance Transacted by That Body Monday.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held at the City Hall Monday evening, but there was little business of importance transacted. This was the meeting at which President Broome, also chairman of the finance committee, was to have made his report, but Councilman Broome was prevented from being present on account of illness, hence the matter was deferred.

The regular monthly bills which were properly audited were ordered paid.

The regular monthly reports of the collector and marshal were received and ordered filed.

The council awarded to Jesse E. Borts the contract for numbering the houses in the territory embraced in a recent order extending the free mail delivery routes.

At 9 o'clock the council adjourned.

Harvey Smith, a deserving colored man who was employed as a teacher in the schools of Alachua county, has just returned to the city from Knoxville, Tenn., where he has graduated in medicine in one of the leading colleges. Miss Eva Fildes, one of Alachua county's efficient teachers, who has been engaged at Grove Park school, having closed that school after a very successful term, is now teaching the Brown school, near High Springs, which has just been opened with fair prospects of a good attendance. Miss Fildes made herself quite popular among the patrons and pupils of Grove Park school, and no doubt will be petitioned to return there next term.

Work on the new streets, three blocks of which it has been agreed by Government Inspectors W. L. Spoon and G. H. Dodge to assist the city in constructing of flint rock, has begun, the first ground being broken on East Main street Monday. An immense plow, to which four horses are attached, is employed in breaking up the Alachua rock which has been used for a pavement, and turning it over, and after the thoroughfare is properly graded, a thickness of about eight inches of flint in the center and five inches on either side will be laid and properly packed.

Lexington, Tenn., June 5, 1901.

This is to certify that about March last I suffered intensely with my back and kidneys. Just prior to this I had undergone treatment for bladder trouble and was relieved, except the treatment was followed by the above trouble. It was recommended that I try "Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery." I took one dose on retiring at night, and to my agreeable astonishment, I found myself relieved. One dose did the work. There is no bosh about this. It is wonderful.

Respectfully,

C. R. Scott, Proprietor Scott House, formerly county chief clerk, postmaster, etc.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. ALL SICK WOMEN

SHOULD READ MRS. FOX'S LETTER

In All Parts of the United States Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Effected Similar Cures.

Many wonderful cures of female ills are continually coming to light which have been brought about by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and through the advice of Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., which is given to sick women absolutely free of charge.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox

Mrs. Pinkham has for many years made a study of the ills of her sex; she has consulted with and advised thousands of suffering women, who to-day owe not only their health but even life to her helpful advice.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox, of 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered for a long time with womb trouble, and finally was told by my physician that I had a tumor on the womb. I did not want to submit to an operation, so wrote you for advice. I received your letter and did as you told me, and to-day I am completely cured. My doctor says the tumor has disappeared, and I am once more a well woman. I believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women."

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She asks nothing in return for her advice. It is absolutely free, and to thousands of women has proved to be more precious than gold.

Attention of voters is directed to the fact that the present week is the last week in which poll taxes may be paid, if the voters desire to cast their ballot in the approaching municipal election. The law requires that every voter must be qualified at least thirty days prior to an election, so the public will be governed accordingly. Pay your poll tax and register at once.

After a short visit to this city in attendance at the court, F. P. Henderson, the peach grower of Arno, has returned to his home. Mr. Henderson states that the cold of a few weeks ago did not affect his trees, which are now literally loaded with miniature fruit, with prospects for a large crop. J. E. Wainwright of the United States land office has returned from Pierson, where he is interested in an orange grove on the banks of Lake George. They are putting on a fine bloom, and the prospects are good for a fine crop next season. The groves on high pine land in that section, however, did not fare so well, and as a rule the leaves on these trees shedded, except in instances where the groves were fired.

The Sun desires to state for the benefit of the public that any matter of news, social or otherwise, which is destined to interest the public, would be appreciated if handed into the office or to the reporter. The reporter is no modern "Faust;" he is just an everyday person, and it is impossible for him to be at more than one place at a time—just as much impossible as it is for the reader of this item. It is also impossible for one man to secure absolutely every happening in a city where there is always so much "doing" at the same time as in Gainesville, and if your social function or your news of any other nature is overlooked by your neglect to see that the reporter gets a "cue"—then don't blame anybody but yourself.

Is it Right?

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready-for-use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property owner loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten thousand churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M. paint. Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from S. J. Thomas, Gainesville, J. C. Bishop, Alachua.
